*Douglasville Police DepartmentNARRATIVE

On 8/16/2017 at 09:41, I responded to a Shoplifting at Ollie's.

Deputy Shippey, who was working an off duty job at Ollie's, called in a shoplifting to 911. When I arrived I met with Loss Prevention, Nolan, but he was unaware of a shoplifting at the store and stated that he did not call 911. I was told to talk to Shippey and he stated that an employee told him that a black male and female was putting merchandise into their bags without paying for them. I asked the couple to come with me to a nearby office so that I could talk to him. Once the couple was inside of the office, I asked another member of Loss Prevention what the couple had stolen and he was also unaware of the shoplifting as well. I went back to Shippey and asked him which employee told him about the shoplifting and he described a woman by the name of Joanna Jackson. Jackson stated that Raven George came and alerted her of a couple whom were acting suspicious. I spoke with George and she stated she never saw the couple put anything in their bags and stated that she never told anyone she saw that.

Loss Prevention stated that Deputy Shippey never reported the shoplifting to them. Ollie's decided not to move forward with the investigation due to incorrect 3rd party information.
